[For the Roundabout.]

THE WORLD IS WIDE.

The world is wide,
Yet there be few
Who, side by side,
One path pursue;
Whose every part
Life hath combined
To form one heart
And be one mind.

Oh! dark the day
Indeed and drear
To part the way
Of one so near;
To feel such hand
Slip from our own,
And hear command:
"Onward—alone!"

From such, O God,
Turn not away;
Thy staff, Thy rod
For them we pray;
Thy peace, Thy grace
Be with them then
Their faltering pace
To lead. Amen!

TO CONNECTING LINES.

This is to advise that commencing Monday, February 25, 1901, this company will honor C. P. A. mileage locally over its line, thus abrogating all instructions issued in October last relative to the discontinuance of the use of this mileage locally over the line, such instructions permitting its use only between St. Louis and Evansville and Louisville.

We have pleasure in further stating that all outstanding C. P. A. mileage tickets will also be honored over our line locally, whether they contain clause to this effect or not.

This is for your information and any instructions you may deem necessary to issue in the matter.

Yours truly,
L. I. IRWIN,
General Passenger Agent.
